A BRIEF HISTORY of the

National Hook-Up of Black Women, Inc. (NHBW)
Nashville, TN Chapter

HISTORICAL OVERVIEW

OUR MISSION

As a charitable organization, the National Hook-Up of Black Women, Inc. (NHBW, Inc.) is dedicated to improving the lives of women and their families.

Our mission is to:

- Support and sponsor community-based health and human service initiatives
- Present and preserve the achievements of African-American women and their significant contributions to society
- Promote and sponsor projects that improve and enrich lives through the arts and cultural currents of the community
- Prepare women and girls for community service and leadership
- Advocate for the well-being of women and their families.

NHBW - THE NATIONAL ORGANIZATION

Fourteen spirited women who recognized a need to establish a communications network between women's organizations and individuals to support the Congressional Black Caucus legislative efforts, and to provide a national forum to articulate the needs and concerns of African American women and their families, conceived the National Hook-Up of Black Women, Inc. (NHBW).

Organized in September 1974 during the Congressional Black Caucus, this group of dedicated women banded together to render support and leadership assistance to the female members of the Caucus.

The National Hook-Up of Black Women, Inc. (NHBW, Inc.) is a charitable organization dedicated to improving the lives of Black families through support of the arts, culture, health and human services programs.

NHBW NASHVILLE – THE LOCAL CHAPTER

The Nashville Chapter of NHBW was organized in 1978, and was the third chapter to be formed. The local chapter was created in order to expand the impact and outreach of the national office in support of its mission. Within our Nashville chapter, the mission is currently achieved through the initiation and support of literacy programs, providing awareness for health issues, voter education forums, and other service activities within the community.
